

"Thank you very much for the book On The Edge of Time I received from you. I have been wondering why things in this world have been happening: Texas is flooded, wildfires all over the place, and now Florida hit by storms."

Edge of Time reader, FL

"I found your book The Path to Peace. As soon as I read the first page, it was like looking into a mirror at myself. So could you please send me more of your Bible study guides. Thank you very much."

Path to Peace reader, OK

"I have not forgotten about you and your wonderful ministry and resources. The reason you have not heard from me is because I was getting close to my release date from prison and didn't want to risk the chance of not receiving my studies.... I am home now and continuing my studies with you. I thank you and appreciate all of your prayers, resources and love."

Inmate, MD

"Thank you so much for the books you sent me. I've enjoyed them. They are teaching me so much that I didn't know before."

Edge of Time reader, NC

"Just a note to say thank you for publishing the book The Path to Peace. I thoroughly enjoyed reading it through and it restored much of my insight into redemption. It immensely refreshed my faith. Thank you!"

Inmate, IN

"I've never really read the Bible or understood any of it. I would and am willing to learn. I'm in prison serving 50 years and will have to do most of it. It's more than likely I will die in here. So it's gotten me thinking I need to do some changing in my life."

Inmate, IN

"I received The Path to Peace in the mail recently; and while I almost disregarded it, once I started reading it I hated to put it down. Thank you very much."

Path to Peace reader, WI

"I am writing concerning the booklet On The Edge of Time. I am trying to educate my family on the end times. I want to call a family meeting with the whole family to go over this booklet with the Bible. I realize these booklets are free to a certain extent, but I would like for each family member to have one to follow along with me at the meeting. I am willing to purchase them if you will let me. I need 25 of them."

Edge of Time reader, TX

"I was in a very hateful, evil place here in prison, and some people came in baring treats and reading material. It was amazing. It lit up the entire place with the light of Christ's love."

Inmate, Oklahoma

"I have lived a life of substance abuse and am ready to make a change. I am asking for guidance. I have nothing. I don't have a Bible. I borrowed one but couldn't see the words and couldn't understand them. Could you help me obtain my own large print Bible?"

Inmate, IN

"These books and Bible studies I've read help me in a lot of ways. Like keeping me from going crazy in this place I got myself into for the wrong choices I made in life. What I'm trying to say is these materials help me to get back to God. They get me back to the place I should have never turned my back on along time ago."

Inmate, IL

"First I want to thank you for everything. You have made my life a whole lot better. Thanks for the great Bible you sent me. The Hope in Times of Trouble booklet came at a perfect time. I read it right away and got a lot out of it. I just want to let you know that I am really thankful for all your help in this troubled time of mine. You have reached out to me and given me hope."

Inmate, IN

"Thank you all so much for all of the great spiritual resources you have offered me free of charge.... I believe I will learn the truth and not be misguided as I believe everything I have read to date that you all sent me is 100% accurate truth and it has helped me so much. It really has began changing me for the better as I apply the truths I learn. I hope some time soon that I may become fully converted and a baptized Christian."

Path to Peace reader, NY

"Opened my eyes about the beast, his mark, and the USA in prophecy."

Edge of Time reader, CA

"The Ministry of Healing is awesome, especially the nursing part, as I am a nurse"

Internet Interest, CO

"The booklet The Path to Peace helped rekindle my relationship with the Lord Jesus Christ."

Path to Peace reader, GA

"I wonder if I could have/buy this booklet, On The Edge of Time— about 15. This is such an eyeopener. It is amazing how the Lord has been letting me know there is much more to His gospel than what I get from our pastor's teachings."

Let the Reformation Continue

500 Years of Printing History that Changed the World

This year many in the Christian world commemorated the 500th anniversary of the great Protestant Reformation, either in appreciation for the infinite blessings it brought to the soul or, amazingly, as some would have us believe, an unfortunate event that sorrowfully divided Christendom. For most Christians, however, I'm sure the year, and the very day that gave the Reformation its greatest push forward, passed without recognition. Have you ever thought where this world would be today without it?

The obvious first comes to mind. If you are of European decent, more than likely you'd be Catholic, or Communist (remember the cause of the French Revolution). And your ancestors? They may never have made it to the new world. Without the impetus of the Reformation, there'd be no "land of the free." The "new" would be just like the "old." Freedom of religion, freedom of speech, freedom of the press, and all the other liberties we enjoy but take for granted would only be a far off dream. And worst of all, there would be no "good news" to inspire with hope our sinful souls. No blessed assurance. No amazing grace.

No peace like a river. No resting place. Where would we find the lovely Jesus we know and trust today? Face it. We'd still be living in an age of darkness, superstition and error, forever wandering after the beast.

And that most precious book we call the Holy Bible? Still chained to monastery walls and confined to an unknown tongue. We would be living in a very, very different world from that which we know today. For all the positive advances in science, education, agriculture, industry, health, and government that bless our world, we owe it all to the advancement of Bible truth through the channels of the great reformation. O' let us celebrate the victories of the Protestant Reformation and the great sacrifice the reformers and the multitudes who followed them made to set men free from the tyranny of Rome.

But there's one more thing I want to bring to mind as we close this milestone in Protestant Christian history, and that is the very thing, next to Martin Luther himself, that propelled the Reformation forward.

Martin Luther nailed his 95 theses to the Wittenberg Church door and sent copies to his superiors, but his supporters thought it needed a broader reading audience. Within days Luther's 95 points against the sale of indulgences were the talk of all Germany and within weeks that of all Christendom itself. How was that possible?

Let's give credit where credit is due. It was the printing press, 75 years plus in operation and now available in almost every city of western Europe, that opened the doors of the Reformation to speedily take hold of the minds and hearts of the nations, tribes, tongues and peoples of Europe. And this is how Divine Providence would have it.

One cannot celebrate the Reformation without celebrating the printing press. Surely both of them were gifts of God to His earth bound children. It was the press that kept the fires of the Reformation brightly burning for hundreds of years. And when the Protestant churches themselves had fallen asleep and were almost dead (See Rev. 3:1-6), God breathed new life into the Reformation through the Great Second Advent Movement and used the printing press to once again awaken the nations to the great truths of the Bible lost during the Dark Ages. The rapid speed at which the message traveled was due largely to the press. Without it, this movement would never have become the world-wide movement we know today.

Brothers and sisters, the beginning of the Protestant Reformation was glorious. But her end is to be no less glorious, if in fact more so. What a privilege is ours to walk in the footsteps of the great reformers of the past and proclaim the same great truths of the gospel and the glad tidings of a soon coming Saviour! Let us keep our lamps burning and let us keep those presses rolling!!!

Your brother in Christ, Steve

A Protestant Call to Faithfulness

Those early reformers, whose protests have given us the name of Protestant, felt that God has called them to give the light of the gospel to the world, and in doing this they were ready to sacrifice their possessions, their liberty, and their own lives. Are we, in this, the last conflict of the great controversy, as faithful to our trust as were the early reformers to theirs?

In face of persecution and death, the truth was spread far and near. The Word of God was carried to the people; all classes, high and low, rich and poor, learned and ignorant, studied it eagerly for themselves, and those who received the light became in their turn messengers to impart it.

In those days the truth was brought home to the people through the press. Luther's pen was a power, and his writing, scattered broadcast, stirred the world. The same agencies are at our command, with facilities multiplied a hundred-fold. Bibles and publications in many languages, setting forth the truth for this time, are at our hand, and can be swiftly carried to every part of the world. We are to give the last warning of God to men; and what should be our earnestness in studying the Bible, and our zeal in spreading the light!

Christmas & Birthdays Behind Bars

It all started with Christmas Behind Bars back in 2014 when our two ministries teamed up to provide a Steps to Christ to every inmate in the prisons and jails they serve. More recently an opportunity arose to provide inmates with a Steps to Christ for their birthday. Here is Daisy's story.

"The Lord called me to work in prison ministry more than 20 years ago. He always provided everything and made things possible. In December of 2016, with the help of PROJECT: Steps to Christ, Amazing Facts, 3ABN, and other ministries, we have been able to reach those that are hardly reached by other religious groups because they are serving life sentences or are in close management. And how we have done it is a miracle!

"We download every month all the names from the main prison unit and annex near our home that had birthdays on that month. It varies from 150 to 190 names a month. We then send each inmate a Happy Birthday letter, a PROJECT: Steps to Christ postage-paid, free book offer card, an Amazing Facts Bible study enrollment card, and a 3ABN free book list. An invitation is also sent to those inmates that are in medium or minimum security to our Monday, Wednesday and Sabbath meetings. When inmates are transferred to other correctional facilities, we do our best to follow them by writing to them. Besides the Suwannee Correctional Institution here in North Florida, we have been able to follow them into 17 more facilities. Hundreds of dollars have been spent in paper, envelopes, stamps, ink, etc.; but like I said before, the Lord has miraculously provided everything. When you see the size of our tiny church you will probably say, 'IMPOSSIBLE;' and we say, 'IS THERE ANYTHING IMPOSSIBLE FOR GOD?'"

Since Daisy and her husband Jose began using our "FREE BOOK" card, they have sent out over 3,000. To date we have had over 170 inmates respond back (a 5.6% response rate) requesting a free copy of The Path to Peace (Steps to Christ). The great thing about these cards is they are a very inexpensive way to introduce our message books to people and are easy to transport and share. Daisy typically orders 250 each month to keep her ministry going.

Wouldn't it be great if a birthday card prison ministry, such as Daisy's, could be established in every church, even where it's not possible to personally hold meetings in the local prison or jail? If you would like more information on how you or your church can start just such a ministry to those forgotten by society but certainly not forgotten by God, please contact us.

Even if they don't respond to the free offers for spiritual materials, they will surely appreciate being remembered on their birthday, and it will be good seed planted that might ultimately change the direction of their lives.
